

1

Auditions are open to all students at the University of Pittsburgh - regardless of experience or major. Last year we offered students over 100 opportunities to perform in main stage, lab, and student club shows.

2

Graduates can be found performing on professional stages around the country, founding theatre companies, directing plays, and producing short films and web series. We train artist entrepreneurs. We are dedicated to emboldening and equipping you to create your own work.

5

Each year, directors are invited to submit applications to create their own one-act lab productions - directed, designed, and performed by Pitt students.
